

A PROPHETIC LOOK AT 2010

To begin we are going to review some aspects of previous prophetic words that we have shared from the end of 2005 through 2009 that still pertain today.

WORLD AFFAIRS:

From the end of 2005 for 2006...

This blow will change the playing field in the Middle East and move Iran into becoming a major player, more so than now. When this occurs, keep your eyes on France and Russia. The Cold War ended some twenty or so years ago, but many of the prophetic people were saying then, that the iron curtain will fall again and the liberty of the Russian people will only be temporary. I believe in 2006 we will see the setting of the stage for a new iron curtain to fall (a remake of the old) and divide the east from the west.

From 2006 for 2007...

In 2007 the Holy Spirit will break forth in the hearts of those who walk in unity, and begin to reveal things from the heart of God that in times past was completely inaccessible. Why will He open these chambers of revelation to individuals? Because they have ceased to be individuals and in humility, recognized the significance of Christ's Living Temple, made up of men and women, young and old, brother and sisters, new in Christ and seasoned, lowly and mighty, laity and leaders. But the lone ranger will be a lost ranger. They will be given space to repent, but the one who walks in the revelation of the Church, will realize how infected the loner really is. For this is the year of the Holy Spirit on His people! For some as the saying goes, this will be a year when Heaven came down and kissed the earth and you got caught in the middle of the smack!

On a national level, the United States will also be faced with the similar opportunity. 2007 on the political field has started with darkness and Ishmael. There has been a great unrest about the war on terror, there has been divisive rhetoric among political parties to the point where the sovereign offices of government that I have established and the seat of authority from which they operate, they use my gift of authority for their own interests and not mine. Just like the children of Israel, who built the Golden Calf while I fed them with manna. For that matter 2007 is the year of the woman. The seventh letter of the Hebrew aleph-bet is the zayin. It is taught that the zayin is the symbol of the virtuous woman. Yet at the same time the zayin is the symbol of the male phallus. Thus there is contradiction and contrast, yet revelation. As I said earlier, Ishmael precedes the promise. Many are excited that a woman has ascended to be the speaker of the House in the United States, but know that she is an Ishmael and not my Isaac. She is the work of the flesh that comes before my woman of promise and it will be some time yet before I reveal who my woman is. Yet, this is still the year of the woman! They year when I will move on my women and raise them up and cause them to step into arenas that they have not do so in the past. For some, it will be a suddenly. One day, you are on the job, the next day you own the company. One day, you are doing house work, the next you are on the political front. One day, you are sitting in the pew, the next day you are prophesying to the congregation.

In 2009 it was said that President Barak will continue to move the prophetic clock forward, in the vain that George Bush did, though Bush was rejected by the world. Like in the days of Joseph, there was a famine in the land. It was famine that God used to deal with the hearts of His people. While Joseph was God's tool of deliverance from famine for God's people, he also opened the door to potential persecution and subjugation of God's people, which would require a spiritual battle of great enormity deliverance. God is dealing with the hearts of both His people and Mankind. Like in the book of Exodus, God's people's stay in Egypt was supposed to be temporary. But because they enjoyed their prosperity did not return to their homeland, what was meant as a tool of blessing, eventually became their place of persecution and bondage. In speaking of God's people and subjugation and persecution, I also saw in the spirit a high ranking Nazi like commander in conversation with a person I did not recognize as of yet... They were standing on a hill with a newly paved road with lush greenery on both sides with rich trees. The commander wore a long dark green coat, was an older white haired man, with an SS like hat. The issue was that whatever their conversation was about, the road lead to Israel. Though I did not hear specifics, it was clear however that the western world was now entertaining anti-Semitic views that it had not since early years of Nazism. Though 2009 will not be the year the West will turn its back on Israel, it will finish paving the road and begin the discussion.

THE WORD FOR 2010:

The word I have for the political or global situation this year is there will be those who elected President Obama who will begin to turn away from him. They will display displeasure with him and begin to reveal their feelings in the media even more so as the year progresses. But for President Obama, if the Church is wise, he will become a type of Joseph, as this transition happens, the Church needs to pray for him, and even encourage him in the way he should go, we must pray for his protection and the protection of his family. While this may not be popular with the religious right, and let me emphasize religious, political parties are not an issue, God is still dealing with the heart of His Church for the purpose of His Creation. Last year it began with money, this year it will be with leadership. In almost a strange way, president Obama will seem to swing from left to right and back again. Why will he do this? Because the world and My Church are in the time of change. The scripture says:

Daniel 2:21-22 21 And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. 22 He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with Him. NKJV

As long as the Church's heart remains as the children of peace and meekness, as it was stated in the Beatitudes, they will rule through prayer and move leaders in and out of position at My command as I lead them. But if I have to place a leader in position, without their meekness of spirit, as I did 2000 or as I did in the minds of some in 2008, then it will be a sign of My dealing with the Church as I am dealing with them now. Hear me men and women of the Church, there is no other true king or ruler, but My Messiah. I am not attempting raise up a leader from among fallen man or from within the people of the Church, nor am I trying to create a utopia until the Messiah comes. No! Rather, all who rule and reign are given a choice to either work toward My purposes or against them, and either way My purposes will be accomplished, even through the one called the Anti-Christ. I have no other objective, but to complete what I started long ago, when I spoke light from the darkness. This is all for the perfecting the Soul of My Creation and for the Messiah to come and be revealed.

GOD'S KINGDOM (THE CHURCH):

From 2007 and for 2008...

In 2008 the Lord said to us that there will be new beginnings, but not in the light of who many prophesied and many received. In their carnality they perceived more blessing of comfort and success. No! It was clearly said, that before the new comes, there must be a death. Before rebirth, the seed must go into the ground and die. In 2008, things had to die for new life to come forth.

From 2008 for 2009...

2009 brings two different, yet complementing elements: The first is that of great darkness and uncertainty. And Lord says, "Yet, I am in the darkness! I have reserved Myself there, not because I wish to hide from you, but to encourage you to leave where you have been and enter into places you have never gone. Because of this, My Church has a mountain to climb in 2009! It is the mountain of transfiguration, the mountain of change. It will be there on the mountain, in the darkness, My cloud will descend, and call to many like I did to Moses to come up into the thick dark cloud and I will pass before them. Some of My ministers are proclaiming, 'In 2009 I am receiving what is mine.' This is a true word! But like in 2008, with the message of 'new beginnings', it will not be as some suppose. Some will humble themselves in the darkness, and trust Me as they ascend into the thick cloud like Moses did, where I will meet them, call them, transform them, and cause them to walk anew, entrusting them with what is Mine. Others in their self-centeredness, recognizing that the mountain has the Divine blessing, will not walk the road of darkness, but the one of familiarity and like in the days of Moses, when the children were warned not to touch the mountain lest I break forth upon them, I will break forth upon them and what they will receive is what is theirs and not Mine. They will receive more restriction and a perception of My withdrawal into the thick darkness. The religious will see this as judgment, but it is not judgment, it is My chastening as a loving Father chastens His children so they can become who they are intended to be.

The Word for the Church in 2010...

2010 is a year of rebirth for many, 2010 a year to start again! 2009 was a year of darkness, a year of uncertainty, a year of great trial, yet pregnant with good. Hear my voice! Those who during this time of struggle, found within them the pure, the holy and the good that God had placed in them, this year in 2010 will be a year a rebirth, a year where things will begin to fall into place, a year when long awaited answers to a heart's cry, will bud like a fresh blade of grass after a hard, cold winter.

2009 was a year of correction, adjustment, connection and realignment. In the midst of financial collapse, many found themselves in serious challenge as to their priorities. Some individuals and even ministries lost their buildings, staff, and other so-called "levies" of spiritual success. Why? Because the Creator of the Universe and His Christ, Jesus, the Head of the Church, is a holy God, a pure God and a faithful God not to let His people be corrupted with the world. Remember My words:

1 Corinthians 11:31-32 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. NKJV

For many in 2009 God stripped, pressed, revealed failure and caused many to go back to the source of their spiritual life, rather than save what they perceived to be spiritual success. For those that have found that source, have repented of the externals and found at their inner core the love, mercy and grace of God, again 2010 will be a year they will have the opportunity to start over again.

In 2010 it will begin to become clear that there are truly aspects of God that are hidden and those that are revealed. No longer will church leaders, prophets and apostles be able to say, "I have answer for this or that..." God has and is still humbling His leaders in whatever way will get their attention, He is God and it takes a true man or woman of God to say, the Lord has not revealed His wisdom on this matter. Too long My people have gone from one place to another, from one meeting to another looking for the answers. They have met the gifted, stirred their gifts, and had manifestations; but still had no transforming answers. Why? Because there are times to simply trust and walk, together with Me, My Son, My Spirit, and together as One. Those that will prophecy and say this or that, and it not be from the Head, eventually those who are truly seeking Me will realize there was nothing but exciting, empty words.

Know this; God is not looking to replace the great men or women who have gone on to be with Him with other great leaders of renown. Rather, He's looking to elevate His people.

I used great leaders because that is what My people wanted, like long ago they wanted a king and I gave them Saul. Many of the leaders I raised up, did not even want the glory My people gave them, they just wanted to obey Me. Others became tainted by the glory the people gave them and together with the people, they built their golden calves of truth, but I still fed them to keep them alive, for I am a faithful God, even when My people are unfaithful to Me. Like back when the children of Israel appeared before Me at Sinai, I spoke the Torah so all could hear My Voice. But the children of Israel chose not to hear My voice, as it says in Exodus 20:18-23 (Hebrew Bible starts 15-20):

"[15] The entire people saw the thunder and the flames, the sound of the shofar and the smoking mountain; the people saw and trembled and stood from afar: [16] They said to Moses, "You speak to us and we shall hear; let God not speak to us lest we die.": [17] Moses said to the people, "Do not fear, for in order to elevate you has God come; so that awe of Him shall be upon your faces, so that you shall not sin.": [18] The people stood from afar and Moses approached the thick cloud where God was: [19] Hashem (Yahweh) said to Moses, "So shall you say to the Children of Israel, 'You have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven: [20] You shall not make [images of] what is with Me gods of silver and gods of gold shall you not make for yourselves..." (The Stone Chumash).

They saw the wonders of the presence of the Lord, but they would not draw close, rather they stood from afar and told Moses to go and talk with God and then return and tell them what He said... But this was not My desire, My Spirit spoke so all could listen, the man of God was only to lead the people to a place where they could hear.

But like the children of Israel, we chose to have the man go before God, and then speak to us. And before you knew it the man or woman of God, became the idol of gold or the idol of silver.

So I bankrupted some the idols of gold and silver, and to others He has been merciful for a season, offering them a change of heart. For some He has put a fire to what was gold and silver and melted them into perspective. Those who realize that I Am not seeking to raise up another great leader, another great voice, another celebrity to stand as an idol in My Temple, will find for themselves the fresh breath of the Spirit. For I never really looked for a man or woman, but to elevate My people, who together would reflect My image as One Man. Those who realize the inner reality of unity, what it means to be together as One, as is declared in My name, not just by gathering together in some meeting hall; but in Spirit and in Truth, those in 2010 will find the rebirthing, the restart on their journey from the trials of 2009. But those who still want their celebrity, their idols of gold and silver, will find themselves chasing clouds with no water, and be like tossed leaves in a hot wind.

In the world I have always and till this day, moved the administration of My government from those that have subtly became idols of gold and silver in My Temple to the comely, the unassuming and the lowly. For example, in the last one hundred years I moved from the established church, to the humble and socially inappropriate, like a partially blind black man on Azusa street, or the coal miners in the United Kingdom, or women who the religious said should not speak, but I had them build my church even during a time of economic down turn, or the those whom I used just 60 years ago to bring my healing power, who were nothing more than farmers and the uneducated, but when people began to idolize those that I raised up, I then looked to the hippies and flower children on and off college campuses. I looked to styles of music that the religious called worldly and anointed those that played it for My glory. If you look carefully I did not turn My back on those who subtly became celebrities, I did not take back My gifts or My hand, because they were mine, but in some cases I had to deal with them, and to deal with My people. But I did change the administration of My government and birthed something fresh apart from them. Why? Because I cannot be poured through a few great men and women, there is a reason that even my Christ during His earthly ministry when the people wanted to make Him king, ran into the wilderness. My Image can never be revealed through a few great leaders, My Image can only be revealed in the collective of all My people.

2010 is the new beginning we have been speaking of, the change of governmental administrations is upon us, like we saw in 2009 in the world; so will be in My church in 2010. There will be those that will persecute the change because they want to hold on to what was once anointed, but like any good wine, if it is passed its season it will become vinegar. Those who want to remain a pleasant wine need to give a platform, a place, and friendship to those I am raising up. Those who are of open heart, who have been tried and pressed in the last few years, and have come back to the only revelation I ever really spoke from the Heavens, I will keep you in 2010, when the empty are revealed and the more idols are melted. I will keep you and elevate you, because you have only one desire, which is to elevate the one thing I desire to elevate.

Zechariah 14:9b : בְּיוֹם הַהוּא יְהוָה יֶהְיֶה אֶחָד וְשִׁמּוֹר אֶחָד :

In His day, Yahweh shall be One and His name, One!
